UMW Purpose
United Methodist Women shall be a community of women whose purpose is to know God and to experience freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ; to develop a creative, supportive fellowship; and to expand concepts of mission through participation in the global ministries of the church.

Welcome...
Nurturing Growth for Christ, learning together!

Welcome to Mission u! We’re eager to get to know you! This will be an adventure of learning and growing together. We are delighted to have an excellent group of study leaders to engage us in 3 significant topics.

This year’s studies – The Bible and Human Sexuality, Climate Justice and Latin America: People and Faith – have a single thread connecting them found in the first book of our holy text. Genesis 1:26-27 narrates the creation of humankind in God’s own image with the express purpose of their being stewards or caretakers of planet earth and its inhabitants.

We invite you to participate also in time for worship, music, food, fellowship and some hoopla! May this annual time give you renewed friendships, encouragement and means to be agents of change and nurture for Christ...

In God’s love,
Rosie Kumar, Co-Dean

Judy Church, Co-Dean

Latin America: People and Faith (English) - Geographical Study

Latin America: People and Faith is an overview of the richness of Latin America and its people for readers on the North American continent. The study examines the history of the region from pre-Columbian times until colonization and the struggle for independence. It also explores the current challenges of the nations, along with their rich art, culture and the ongoing contributions of women. The role of religion is woven throughout the pages and will help the reader understand how Latin America has been influenced by various religions and faith traditions. Photos by missionary Paul Jeffrey offer a glimpse of the work of The United Methodist Church in the region. 128 pp.

Climate Justice: Call to Hope and Action

This study invites you to understand climate justice, which means setting right our relationships with each other and the earth. Climate injustice is the result of climate change. The study will challenge you to see what needs to happen for climate justice to become a reality in the world today. The church needs to move powerfully model a way of doing it differently. This will entail not just focusing on the environment, but also asking hard questions regarding financial profit, a growing economy, our independent way of thinking and our understanding of efficiency. 108 pp.

Price $10.00 Item Number M3265

The Bible and Human Sexuality

This study explores the Bible and human sexuality as two essential components of our Christian faith. The Bible is part of the foundation of our faith. Human sexuality is part of who we are as human beings, created by God and called good. The study invites us to explore the complexity of the biblical text and our varied understandings of it in light of human sexuality. 168 pp.

Reverend Sharon Delgado is a retired United Methodist clergywoman in the California-Nevada Annual Conference and Executive Director of Earth Justice Ministries. She has authored many articles for response Magazine and programs for United Methodist Women Program Book. Look for her new book, Creation and Justice: Love in a Time of Climate Change, to be released in early 2017. Her previous book is Shaking the Gates of Hell: Faith-Led Resistance to Corporate Globalization. With her husband, poet Guarionex Delgado, Sharon lives in Nevada City, California where they love to walk in the woods, go to coffee shops for “writing dates,” Salsa dance, and spend time with their grandchildren who live nearby. To find out more, go to her blog at http://sharondelgado.org.

Reverend Samuel Hong was born in Korea to a Methodist pastor’s family. He was educated in Korea and came over to Duke Divinity School for further theological education. After he got MTS degree from Duke, he moved to Claremont for a Ph.D. in early Christian history, which he earned in 2004. Currently he is chair of Conference Committee on Ethnic Ministries and Outreach in California-Nevada Annual Conference and serves as lead pastor of Korean United Methodist Church of Santa Clara Valley. Samuel lives with his wife and 2 children and enjoys playing the piano and a good game of golf.

Nan McCurdy and Miguel Mairena met in Nicaragua while working together with dozens of Volunteer In Mission teams. They worked in a variety of programs as missionaries there for over 30 years! Nan McCurdy and Miguel Mairena, Mission Advocates for the Western Jurisdiction, are available to help 8 Annual Conferences in 12 states understand and participate in global mission. You can call on them to share God’s love by preaching, teaching and sharing about missionaries and Global Ministries mission programs. One program, Global Mission Fellows, allows young adults to take part in mission and social justice ministries at international or national sites, an amazing opportunity for them to explore their calling as missionaries.

Jo Ann Lawson was elected Vice President for the term 2017-2020 during the 2016 UMW Western Jurisdiction Leadership meeting. From 2012-2015 she served as President of California-Nevada Conference UMW. In 1998, Jo Ann retired from a career with the Neighborhood Reinvestment Corporation, funded by Congress to revitalize neighborhoods and provide affordable housing. As Director of the Pacific Region and manager of a District office, she helped fund, organize, staff and support the development of many agencies throughout the U.S. She is a member of Easter Hill UMC in Richmond. She is the wife of Rev. Phil Lawson, mother of Kelly Gilbert and proud grandmother of grandson, Kelle Michael.
Rev. Corazon Moran was born in the city of Durango, Mexico. Corazon met the Lord Jesus Christ in the House of Life & Peace Methodist Church in her hometown. She graduated from the John Wesley Seminary. After serving for ten years in one of the conferences of Mexico, Corazon was invited to work in the California/Nevada Conference in the Central Valley of California with Hispanic ministry where she is now associate Pastor at Visalia UMC. Corazon likes reading, walking, cycling and the flowers, but what she enjoys most is spending time with her family and supporting her husband Rev. Marcelo Escarzaga and his mission projects, and volunteering at the school with their children Andre, Ary, Marcela and Alesandro. Marcelo is the pastor for Porterville UMC serving the Hispanic community.

Two years ago; Corazon went through one of the most difficult trials in her personal life through an unexpected heart attack, anxiety attacks and depression. God has helped her to serve and advise many women through the Radio program, called Vida Nueva.

Rev. Hyok In Kwon’s friends call him "IN". Before coming to study at PSR, he had taught Sociology and Ethics at a college in Korea. He is currently serving at Berkeley Korean UMC and also working as a campus pastor at PSR. “In” worked for social issues such as racial reconciliation, domestic violence, and reunification of Korea. Now he advocates for the Peace Committee of UMC and the Korean Ecumenical Peace Network in North America as an executive director. He lives with his wife, Cho Hyang and two daughters, Hae Rin who is a college student and Hae Yoon who is in 8th grade.

Katherine Parker is a missionary with the General Board of Global Ministries of The United Methodist Church serving as part of the health team of the United Mission to Nepal. In Nepal since 2013, she was previously in Cambodia with the Community Health and Agricultural Development Program of the Methodist Mission there. She has been a missionary since 2004 and was a mission intern for three years beginning in 2000.

Katherine’s work in Nepal is focused in three areas: 1) Adolescent sexual reproductive health and rights and menstrual hygiene; 2) Maternal and child health; and 3) Water, sanitation, and hygiene. Katherine attended Harvey Mudd College, Claremont, California, where she graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in biology. Her Master of Science degree, also in biology, is from California State University in Sacramento. Her thesis was on bacterial contamination of drinking water in rural Ghana.

Active in the church since childhood, from a young age Katherine wanted to be involved in mission work. In August 2000, after completing college, Katherine began service as a mission intern with Global Ministries’ young adult program. Katherine’s home church is Mt. Tamalpais United Methodist Church in Mill Valley, California.

Plenary – The Bible and Human Sexuality

Welcome

Songs:  Breathe on me, breath of God,
         Take, O Take Me As I Am,

Leader:  God of grace, here we are. It is an incredible privilege when Christians gather. We come together to find you in the middle of some of the most complex concerns we face.

ALL: God of grace, grant us humility and openness to you and to one another, so that you might work in our lives during this precious time together. Regardless of the strength of our opinions, may your spirit of love and grace rise up into our own hands, feet, hearts and minds.

In advance, we thank you. You are our God. We are your people. We give up anything else that claims us.

Leader:  Thanks be to God for the experiences, theologies, reasoned arguments and traditions that inform us as concerned Christians.

ALL:  Thanks be to God for this gift of time, space and community. Amen.

Songs:  Guide My Feet

Songs:  Guide My Feet

Leader:  Gracious and loving God, thank you for this time, for this place, for this community. Thank you for the illumination of things deep and powerful in history, in ourselves, in our church, in our neighbors’ experiences. In this time, we set ourselves aside for your transforming love to further challenge and mold our hearts so that our hands and feet might take up what you need us to be. Amen.

Breathe on Me, Breath of God

words by Edwin Hatch
music by Robert Jackson

Breathe on me, Breath of God, fill me with life anew, that I may love what thou dost love, and do what thou wouldst do.

Yo Quiero Ser

words: anon., Latin America, English trans. S T Kimbrough, Jr.
music: Latin America

Yo quiero ser, Señor amante como el barro en mis manos del alfarero.
I want to be, my loving Savior, formed anew like the clay in the potter's hands.

Tomá mi vida y hazla de nuevo, yo quiero ser un vaso nuevo.
Take now my life, Lord, transform, mold me; I want to be, I want to be a brand new vessel.
Guide My Feet while I run this race

1. Guide my feet while I run this race.
   Guide my feet while I run this race.
   Guide my feet while I run this race,
   for I don't want to run this race in vain!

2. Hold my hand while I run this race.
   Hold my hand while I run this race.
   Hold my hand while I run this race,
   for I don't want to run this race in vain!

3. Stand by me while I run this race.
   Stand by me while I run this race.
   Stand by me while I run this race,
   for I don't want to run this race in vain!

4. I'm your child while I run this race.
   I'm your child while I run this race.
   I'm your child while I run this race,
   for I don't want to run this race in vain!

5. Search my heart while I run this race.
   Search my heart while I run this race.
   Search my heart while I run this race,
   for I don't want to run this race in vain!

6. Guide my feet while I run this race.
   Guide my feet while I run this race.
   Guide my feet while I run this race,
   for I don't want to run this race in vain!

I'm gonna live so God can use me

1. I'm gonna live so God can use me
   anywhere, Lord, anytime!
   I'm gonna live so God can use me
   anywhere, Lord, anytime!

2. I'm gonna work so God can use me
   anywhere, Lord, anytime!
   I'm gonna work so God can use me
   anywhere, Lord, anytime!

3. I'm gonna pray so God can use me
   anywhere, Lord, anytime!
   I'm gonna pray so God can use me
   anywhere, Lord, anytime!

4. I'm gonna sing so God can use me
   anywhere, Lord, anytime!
   I'm gonna sing so God can use me
   anywhere, Lord, anytime!
Tuya es la Gloria/We Sing of Your Glory

words: trad. Latin America; English trans. S.T. Kimbrough, J. music: trad. Latin America

1. Tu-ya es la glo-ria la hon-ra tam-bién;
   We sing of your glo-ry, we praise you a-gain,

2. Tu-yos los do-mi-nios; los tro-nos tam-bién;
   We sing of your pow-er and hon-or a-gain,

3. A ti yo me rindo, te adoro también;
   for you are e-ter-nal.
   We sing of surrender to you, God, again.
   Your power is eternal. Amen. Amen.

4. Gloria en las alturas y en la tierra también;
   for you are e-ter-nal.
   "Glory in the highest, on earth," sing again.

One Bread, One Body

words & music by John Foley, S.J. [1 Cor. 10:16-17; Gal. 3:28; 1 Cor. 12]

One bread, one bod-y, one Lord of all, one cup of bless-ing which we bless. And One bread, one bod-y in this one Lord.
we,...through man-ya through-out the earth, we are one bod-y in this one Lord.
   D.C. al Fine

1. Gen-tile or Jew, serv-ant or free, wom-an or man no more. One
2. Man-ya the gifts, man-ya the works, one in the Lord of all. One
3. Grain for the fields, scat-tered and grown, gath-ered to one, for all. One

For Everyone Born

words by Shirley Erena Murray

music by Brian Mann

1. For e'ry-one born a place at the ta'ble; for e'ry-one born, clean wa'ter and bread; a shel'ter, a space, a safe place for growing, for e'ry-one born, a star o'verhead.

2. For wo-man and man, a place at the ta'ble, revising the roles, de-cid'ing the share; with wis-dom and grace divid'ing the pow'er, for wo-man and man, a sys'tem that's fair.

3. For young and for old, a place at the ta'ble, a voice to be heard, a part in the song, the hands of a child in hands that are wrin-kled, for young and for old, the right to be long.

4. For just and un-just, a place at the ta'ble, a bus'er, a bused with need to for-give, in an-ger, in hurt, a mind-set of mer-cy,
   for just and un-just, a new way to live.

5. For e'ry-one born, a place at the ta'ble, to live with-out fear, and sim- ply to be, to work, to speak out, to wit-ness and wor-ship, for e'ry-one born, the right to be free.

God will de-light when we are cre-a-tors of jus-tice, and joy passion and peace! Yes, God will de-light when we are cre-a-tors of jus-tice; jus-tice and joy!

We Are Marching

Verse 1
We are marching in the light of God
We are marching in the light of God
We are marching in the light of God
We are marching in the light of God
We are marching marching
We are marching Oh Oh
We are marching in the light of God
We are marching marching
We are marching Oh Oh
We are marching in the light of God

Verse 2
We are living in the love of God
We are living in the love of God
We are living in the love of God
We are living in the love of God
We are living living
We are living Oh Oh
We are living in the love of God
We are living living
We are living Oh Oh
We are living in the love of God

Verse 3
We are moving in the power of God
We are moving in the power of God
We are moving in the power of God
We are moving in the power of God
We are moving moving
We are moving Oh Oh
We are moving in the power of God
We are moving moving
We are moving Oh Oh
We are moving in the power of God
Hymn of Promise

1. In the bulb there is a flower; in the seed, an apple tree;
2. There's a song in every silence, seeking word and melody;
3. In our end is our beginning; in our time, infinity;

in cocoons, a hidden promise: butterflies will soon be free!
there's a dawn in every darkness, bringing hope to you and me.
in our doubt there is believing; in our life, eternity.

In the cold and snow of winter there's a spring that waits to be,
From the past will come the future; what it holds, a mystery,
In our death, a resurrection; at the last, a victory,

unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see.

Lord, Listen to Your Children Praying

words and music by Ken Medema

Lord, listen to your children praying, Lord, send your Spirit in this place.

Lord, listen to your children praying, Send us love, send us power, send us grace.
A labyrinth is a tool for meditation and reflection. It has been in existence for some 4,000 years and has become a symbol of life and wholeness. It is a path, not a maze, into the center of a design and back out again.

There is no right way to walk a labyrinth. You only have to enter and follow the path. However, your walk can encompass a variety of attitudes. It may be joyous or somber. It might be thoughtful or prayerful. You may use it as a walking meditation.

Adults are often serious in the labyrinth. Children most often run in and out as fast as they can in a playful manner.

When you walk a labyrinth choose your attitude. From time to time choose a different attitude. Make it serious, prayerful, or playful. Play music or sing. Pray out loud. Walk alone and with a crowd. Notice the sky. Listen to the sounds. Most of all, pay attention to your experience.

Some general guidelines for walking a labyrinth are:

1. Focus: Pause and wait at the entrance. Become quiet and centered. Give acknowledgment through a bow, nod, or other gesture and then enter.

2. Experience: Walk purposefully. Observe the process. When you reach the center, stay there and focus for several moments. Leave when it seems appropriate. Be attentive on the way out.

3. Exit: Turn and face the entrance. Give an acknowledgment of ending, such as “Amen.”

4. Reflect: After walking the labyrinth reflect back on your experience. Use journaling or drawing to capture your experience.
LABYRINTH WALK

“Walk” the labyrinth by using your finger or simply meditate on this image.

Theological Profile/Awareness Wheel

1. In the center circle write GOD.
2. In the ring closest to the center, write the words or images on God that come to you when you hear the word GOD.
3. In the 3rd ring, list the effects of these words on you personally (your work, your relationships).
4. In the last ring, list how these kinds of words impact attitudes, perspectives, and actions in the world in relation to your study.

Theology is our effort to reflect upon God's gracious action in our lives. In response to the love of Christ, we desire to be drawn into a deeper relationship with "faith's pioneer and perfecter." Our theological explorations seek to give expression to the mysterious reality of God's presence, peace, and power in the world. By so doing, we attempt to articulate more clearly our understanding of the divine-human encounter and are thereby more fully prepared to participate in God's work in the world.

As United Methodists, we are called to identify the needs both of individuals and of society and to address those needs out of the resources of Christian faith in a way that is clear, convincing, and effective. Theology serves the Church by interpreting the world's needs and challenges to the Church and by interpreting the gospel to the world.

Thanks for coming to Mission u!

As we complete the mission studies, consider the complexity of the themes and our interconnectedness to them.

- Could our relationships or gifts help us connect with people of Latin America?
- How does our gender, scripture, relationships, and sexuality help define our all being made in God’s image?
- Have we participated in environmental injustices that defile God’s creation and God’s people around the world?
- Could study, prayer and social holiness give us hope and direction?

Please complete the attached evaluation form:
Give your ideas for next year – places that change, same, format, meals.
Let us know what you liked and which areas need improvement.

United Methodist Women will move into 4 new priority areas for our mission work in this quadrennial —
- Climate Justice
- Maternal and Child Health
- Ending Mass Incarceration
- Economic Inequality

Our foremothers left us a legacy of innovative mission,
And we continue that legacy by being the organization the world needs today.
Until poverty, violence, inequality, racism, preventable deaths cease, until women and children are no longer marginalized,
until we live in a world in which all thrive,
women need to be organized for mission.
